

Contents

Glossary
Acknowledgements

Preface

Introduction

Part I: A dangerous world

- Chapter 1 The rising tide of disasters Chapter 2 When the state takes the lead: emergencies from the top down Chapter 3 Communities face catastrophe: community-based disaster management

Part II: Facing the storm: the Orissa supercyclone

- Chapter 4 The Orissa supercyclone: lessons from a calamity
by Anshu Sharma and Tom Palakudiyil
Chapter 5 From disaster to development: how people can help themselves by Joseph Keve and PK Mohanty, the Voluntary Health Association of India Chapter 6 Telling the story: a community perspective by Joseph Keve and Jonathan Rout, the Church's Auxiliary for Social Action Chapter 7 Housing, sanitation and drinking water: strengthening lives and livelihoods
by LT Johnson, Gram Vikas Chapter 8 Responding to the children of Orissa
by Enakshi Ganguly Thukral

Part III: From the ground up: the Gujarat earthquake

- Chapter 9 The lessons of Gujarat
by Anshu Sharma and Tom Palakudiyil

Part IV: Appendices

- Appendix I: The disaster cycle
Appendix II: Models of vulnerability analysis Appendix III: Roles and responsibilities in disaster management in India

Notes
References